

sleeping, going to church, (sleeping in church is not forbidden), taking long and bracing walks, or reading all day long. Riding in trains or boats or automobiles or cars (except to go to church) is forbidden; baseball, golf, games of any sort, taboo; taking your best girl out for a ride, reading your Sunday paper; buying a cigar or an ice cream soda at the corner drug store; going to a movie, a concert or a theatre; buying the loaf of bread or the cold meat your wife told you to get the day before; taking the children to the beach for a swim—good bye all of this. Dr. Buster of Worthless-Living and the Bugbear of Youth forbids it. Good-bye Moses; good-bye prophets; good-bye rabbis; good-bye Jesus; good-bye God. Dr. Bowlby is here—he will take charge of this Universe; you have all been miserable failures, and now brethren, we will have a real, old-fashioned, blue and holy (?) Sabbath!

Away with the Constitution, down with personal liberty, a plague upon the rights to worship as an American's conscience dictates—a new revelation is upon us—Dr. Bowlby is is't god and prophet—let us bow the head and bend the knee to the President of the Lord's (?) Day. Alliance!

GEORGE FOX.

JEWISH CHATAUQUA IN SESSION

Speakers Unfold Program to Spread Judaism.

"People of Jewish faith need not assume an apologetic expression. They need not have their children assume they are unfortunate because they were born Jews. Education and the spreading of Jewish culture and ideals will do away with this tendency. The Jewish people of this nation are starving and hungering for knowing of Judaism.

This was the statement of Miss Jeannette Oldberg, secretary of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, which opened its twenty-ninth annual convention last night at the Euclid Avenue Temple.

In outlining the activities of the Jewish Chautauqua, Miss Goldberg said the society had placed nineteen professors in various colleges and that it intended placing a professor of Judaism in every large university and College of the nation.

Dr. William Rosenau of Baltimore, Vice Chancellor of the Society, speaking for Rabbi Berkowitz, founder of the organization, who was unable to attend on account of sickness, told of the need of increasing Jewish education among Jews and non-Jews. He said the Jewish race was understood less than any other. He urged co-operation and extension of the work of the Chautauqua, the aim of which he said was to spread Judaism to every part of the United States.

More than 200 delegates, consisting of Rabbis, teachers, educators and other prominent men and women from all parts of the United States are attending the convention.

Cleveland Jewish schools were visited Sunday morning. A reception and tea was tendered the delegates in the afternoon by Women's organizations in Cleveland at the Hotel Statler, where the Convention has its headquarters.

At the formal opening in the evening, Rabbi Solomon Goldman of Cleveland, offered the opening prayer. An Address of Welcome was given by Benjamin Lowenstein of Cleveland. Mr. Arthur K. Stern of Philadelphia, President of the Society, responded. The closing prayer was given by Rabbi Fram of Chicago.

An illustrated lecture in kindergarten work at 9:30 opened the program

Muscat of Rochester took part. Discussion followed.

The afternoon session was conducted by Rabbi Louis Mann of New Haven, Conn. on Normal Class Work. Discussion followed by Miss Hattie Goldstein of Louisville, Ky.

The evening program which consisted of educational talks, was held at Central and E. 55th St. Temple. Dr. Daniel Hockett presided. The opening prayer was offered by Rabbi Rudolph Coffee of Toledo, O. The main Speaker of the evening was Dr. Geo. A. Coe of New York City, who spoke on "Education and Democracy" in which he emphasized the need of education in democratic societies. All race hatred is due to lack of education on the part of the people, and to remedy this, we must first of all educate RABBI LEONARD ROTHSTEIN, PINE BLUFF, ARK.

Rabbi Rothstein, one of the best known of the Southern Rabbis, has been asked to deliver the Baccalaureate Address at the University of Arkansas, in June. This is a signal honor.

Monday. Addresses on this subject were given by Miss Mabel Altman of Buffalo and Mrs. Harry Rosewater of Cleveland. Discussion followed.

Dr. David Philipson of Cincinnati presided at the afternoon session, when "Child Nature with special reference to Religion" was discussed.

Discussion followed.

At 7 o'clock in the evening a dinner was tendered to visitors and delegates at the Hotel Winton.

The Tuesday session opened with illustrated lectures of Biblical History and Religion, in which Rabbi Max Currick of Erie, Pa., Miss Martha Cohen of Baltimore, Miss Sarah Jacobson of Syracuse, N. Y., Rabbi Joseph Rauch of Louisville and Miss Rachel humanity. The program closed with a benediction offered by Rabbi Israel of Evansville, Ind.

The opening of the Wednesday session consisted of illustrated talks on the prophets at which Rabbi Louis J. Kopald of Buffalo and Mrs. Herman Hollender of Washington took part.

An illustrated lesson in Post-Biblical History then took place in which Rabbi Nathan Stern of New York, Mrs. William Rosenfeld of Richmond, and Miss Etta Zolin of Milwaukee participated.

The afternoon session consisted of a Parents' Teachers' Meeting, conducted by Rabbi Louis Grossman of Cincinnati. Problems of the Parent, the child and the teacher were discussed.

At 7 p. m. a banquet at Hotel Winton was tendered to visitors and delegates by the Congregation and Women's Organizations of Cleveland.

The convention closed Thursday morning in which group conferences in Kindergarten, Primary, Biblical and in Post-Biblical Grades took place. The closing remarks were given by Rabbis Louis Wolsey and Abba H. Silver of Cleveland, Ohio. Benediction was offered by Rabbi Samuel Benjamin of Cleveland.

WICHITA FALLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kruger spent several days in Fort Worth.

Miss Anne Weingarten of Houston will arrive this week to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyons.

Babette and Rosalie Joseph have returned from a visit in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Abe Blank and daughter, Fannie, have returned from Fort Worth.

Mrs. Jake Cohen has returned from Vickburg, Miss. and was accompanied home by her sister in law, Mrs. Leon Schwartz and sons.

Mrs. M. Schlosberg and son, Sidney and daughter, Mrs. Levy of Philadelphia, motored over from Henrietta and spent Monday.

Miss Elsie Cohen entertained Thursday evening with an informal dance given at the home of Mrs. Chas. Veras. A salad course was served to Misses Stephanie Fieldschmidt, Katie Simmons, Maurine Hickman, Maude Brothers; Messrs. Perlman, William Fielschmidt, Sol Kruger, Nathan and Sam Quicksilver, Lynch and Messrs. and Mesdames Veras, Lake, Dampf, Becker, Thornburg, Cohen, Schwartz, of Vickburg and Joseph of Alexandria.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kruger entertained the employees of the Kruger Jewelry Store Sunday evening with a four-course dinner. The house and table was decorated with purple sweet peas and after dinner dancing and games were enjoyed. Those present were Messrs. Sol Kruger, Morris Zalefsky, Pat Malone, J. Perlman, J. C. Martin, Pois, Jaffe, Pfifer, Goss, Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. Lazarus Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Kruger, Mrs. Feldman, Mrs. Max Shain and Miss Mattier Humphries.

Mrs. Gene Liepold was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge Club last week. The club prize was won by Mrs. H. Rosenthal, who substituted for Mrs. Chas. Greenburg. The guest prize was won by Mrs. F. J. Levin of Dallas and visitors prizes were given to Mesdames Horowitz, Levin, and Friedenheight. Delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames Paul, Friendenheit, Levin of Dallas, Kaufman, Wolfson, Rosenthal, Lyons, Kleinman, Emold, Horowitz, Butler, Loeb and Miss Rose Riesenbergs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kaufman entertained the Thursday evening bridge club last Tuesday evening. The occasion being the tenth wedding anniversary of the house guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Levin of Dallas. The ladies prize was won by Mrs. Leon Loeb and the gentleman's prize went to A. B. Folsom. A Dutch lunch was served to Messrs. and Mesdames Levin, Liepold, Loeb, Pink and Wolfson.

Master Aaron Kruger entertained a few of his little friends Monday afternoon with a theatre party, the occasion being Aaron's 8th birthday. His guests were Nathalie Levenson, Odesa Katz, Bertha Mae Kruger, Sadie Shain, Benjamin Marcus.